【曜日・講時】	月 3・4 講時
【目的】	To help students understand and discuss current news events and trends
【概要】	In this workshop, we discuss current/recent trends and events. As such, it is impossible to provide a concrete list of class content. However, the topics are chosen based on discussion with students in consideration of level and interest. In previous semesters, topics have covered a wide range, including holidays like Easter, AI systems, recycling, crime, trendy food and climate issues. New topics will be chosen related to current events/trends and students' interests. Listed below are possible subject areas, but it will be modified to reflect students' interests and the teacher's evaluation to stretch students' abilities and horizons, as well as what is trending in news and society at that time. The instructor will bring the article and news links for face-to-face workshops.
【到達目標】	Enjoy discussing current news topics from around the world! We read and discuss articles related to students' interests. Students should also share briefly about a news story they read that week.
【計画】	(All topics are sample ideas and subject to change) 1 Covid-19: Effects and future scope 2 Mega-sports events 3 Replacing the Center Test 4 Environment: What about plastic other than shopping bags? 5 Travel & Tourism 6 Online shopping and real-world stores 7 World elections 8 Foodies 9 Prize Winners 10 Cashless Societies
